Activity Name: Family Outings in Hong Kong – Parks in Taiipo

Activity Objectives:

1. To understand the development history of Hong Kong's railways.
2. To learn about the history of Hong Kong's return to China.

Activity Overview and Record:

This parent-child outing visited two distinctive locations in Tai Po: the Hong Kong Railway Museum and Tai Po Waterfront Park. First, we visited the Railway Museum in Tai Po. The museum houses retired trains from over a hundred years ago, where families could take photos with them. Parents and children tried sitting in different carriages, experiencing the railway sentiment of old Hong Kong. Second, parents and children visited Tai Po Waterfront Park together and ascended the Hong Kong Lookout Tower. Upon reaching the top of the tower, everyone enjoyed the view of Pat Sin Leng, Ma On Shan, and Tolo Harbour in the distance, and took photos as a memento. Afterwards, they had a picnic in the park, creating wonderful memories.
